GICC Sixth Grade Summer Education Experience

Members of the 2009/2010 Sixth Grade class spent four days at Central Catholic from July 6-9 in a Treasure Hunt with GICC teachers Mrs. Cathy Howard, Mrs Norma Peters, Mrs. Dawn Zulkoski, Mrs. Kerry O'Connor and Mrs. Dee Hanssen.

The Treasure Hunt allowed students to acclimate themselves to GICC. Students found the treasure in themselves and their friends as well as in Central Catholic. They discovered things that they value most in their lives all while removing any first day jitters that might arise in August.

Through the Treasure Hunt they also found their new classrooms, where their new teachers are located, their lockers and combinations, the school song and a hint of the Crusader Pride coming the way.

The Crusader Band of Angels Appeal

For the last ten years the Central Catholic Foundation has been proud to contribute $225,000—$327,000s through Endowment Earnings. Because of the downturn in the economy, the Endowment has not produced the funds deemed necessary by the school for the 2009/2010 school year.

The Crusader Band of Angels Appeal was launched in late March to subsidize the Endowment Earnings portion of the school's budget. It is GICC's stimulus package enabling the tradition of quality education to continue at Central Catholic. Angel gifts to date are:

$101,938 to date Representing 111 gifts

$198,062 to $300,000 goal
